

Website: indepthsolomons.com.sb

WHO WE ARE:

In-depth Solomons is a non-profit online news portal dedicated to investigative, in-depth and independent journalism in the Solomon Islands. We are nonpartisan and committed to truthful reporting.

We investigate issues affecting the Solomon Islands and its people, provide analysis, expose corrupt leaders and officials and hold them accountable for their wrongdoings. Our goal is to bring our readers accurate and balanced information so that they can form their own opinions about the most significant topics of our time.

VISION:

Hold those in power to account for corrupt practices and provide space for informed opinion-forming and decision making for Solomon Islanders, through access to fact-based information and analysis.

MISSION:

Investigate and expose injustice, corruption, and wrongdoing and provide analysis & reporting on the most significant issues in the lives of Solomon Islanders via online, independent publishing.

OUR CORE VALUES

- * Truthful & Honesty
- * Inclusive Democracy
- * Dare to Challenge

OUR TEAM

Ofani Eremae (Managing Editor for In-depth Solomons)

Eremae is a leading Solomon Islands journalist with more than 25 years of experience in the media industry. He has worked mostly in print, where he was editor of both the two English dailies — Solomon Star and Island Sun. He has vast experience in news production, newsroom management, and sub-editing. His work can also be found in The Guardian Australia, AFP, and Earth Journalism Network.

Eremae won the 2022 Media Association of Solomon Islands (MASI) Investigative Reporter of the Year Award for an investigative piece he produced on illegal logging, which was published widely, both at home and abroad.

Charley Piringi (Investigative Journalist, In-depth Solomons)

Piringi has a decade-long experience working in the mainstream media. He has worked in print, radio, and television as a reporter, multimedia journalist, TV producer and manager of news websites and social media pages.

His work for international news outlets can be found in The Guardian Australia, AFP, AP, and Reuters. He is a fellow with the Earth Journalism Network, Climate Trackers, and currently the Organised Crime and Corruption Reporting Project (OCCRP).

Gina Maka'a (Investigative Journalist, In-depth Solomons)

Maka'a is a prominent journalist with over 10 years experience in print, radio, television, online media and public relations. She has worked with Solomon Times Online, Solomon Star, and Solomon Islands Broadcasting Corporation (SIBC). At SIBC, where she spent most years, she worked in both News and Current Affairs and TV where she was the senior producer.

Maka'a is also the training coordinator for the Media Association of Solomon Islands (MASI) and is a certified trainer for ABC International Development. She is currently an investigative reporter for In-depth Solomons.

CORE ACTIVITIES

Investigate issues affecting the Solomon Islands and its people, provide analysis, expose corrupt leaders and officials, and hold them accountable for their wrongdoings.

We collaborate with the Pacific journalists as well as our investigative partner, OCCRP to investigate issues.

OUR MAIN AUDIENCE

Educated elites, university graduates, and Solomon Islanders who are keen to know and are serious about issues affecting their country and their lives, and working to change for a better Solomon Islands

CONTACT US:

In-depth Solomons
Suit 05, LKP Building, Mendana Ave
Honiara, Solomon Islands
Email: indepth@solomons.com.sb
Website: indepthsolomons.com.sb

Our major development partners:

Internews