Dear Mr Alan McNeil,

SUBJECT: IMMEDIATE SUSPENSION FROM DUTY

This letter/notice serves to inform you that report has reached the office of the Permanent Secretary of Public Service concerning very serious allegations of misconduct in office against you.

The allegations relates to the following;

1. Fraudulent execution of lease documents (RT 10 Form) and MOU on the 28th November 2023, knowing that the parties/trustees have been deceased relating to parcel 191-064-1 (Kongulai Water Source)
2. Breach of High Court Order (Civil case No. 463 of 2009)
3. Misrepresenting a "Good Will" payment by former Prime Minister (Hon: Manasseh Sogavare) to be a final payment to the disputed November 2023 lease agreement.

Given the magnitude of your misconduct, I have decided that it is appropriate to suspend you from duties effective from the date you received this notice pursuant to Regulation 64 of the Public Service Commission Regulation.

During your suspension, you are not allowed to enter the premises of the ministry of Lands, Housing and Survey offices after leaving office, or, to use office materials/resources, which includes but not limited to vehicles, keys, cabinets computers/Laptops, external drives, cameras files/stationaries etc. Likewise, you are prohibited from conducting any ministry business or, representing the ministry during your suspension.

Failing to comply with these instructions will amount to an act of misconduct from which you may also be charged for.

The action to suspend you is taken to ensure that a thorough investigation is to be carried out without interference whilst due process is undertaken.

Take note that you will be accorded with an opportunity to explain your actions. (Right to respond).

By copy of this letter, the addresses below are duly informed.

Sincerely yours in service,

Luke Cheka
